

FLAMENCO-JAZZ

ALBA ALSINA QUINTET

Alba Alsina is a young saxophonist who fuses flamenco-jazz with electronic environments, creating a shocking and high-level live performance. With El Principio (Self-published, 2020), the first album as a leader, saxophonist and composer, presents different soundscapes accompanied by the dancer Aina Núñez who provides an extra dose of expressiveness through the body and flamenco dancing. The saxophonist wanted to capture this fusion of current electronic sounds with the essence of flamenco and the jazz tradition, becoming a magical fusion in three bands. An intense and powerful show that will not leave anyone indifferent.
